

PROSPECTS ACROSS SCOTLAND

Holiday Weekend
15-17 May 2020
Tulliallan Castle,
Kincardine

Our God is a great big God

Programme for the weekend

During the weekend we will hear stories from the Bible telling us about our amazing God and how much he loves and cares for us. We'll find out much more about our great big God at the 4 celebration meetings over the weekend.

There will be workshops, music, Celebrations, a ceilidh on Saturday evening and time to enjoy the grounds around Tulliallan and free time to just relax with friends.

The weekend will start on Friday with arrival and registration from 5.00pm, then the evening meal at 7.00pm.

The weekend will finish after lunch on Sunday at about 1.30pm. You can come for the Saturday, as a day visitor, arriving by 10.00am.

Venue

- Tulliallan Castle is the Scottish Police Training College venue. It is in Kincardine just over the bridge into Fife. The main conference venue has a dining room, assembly hall and various meeting rooms we can use. There are 3 lounge areas for relaxing - the Oyster Catcher Room, Reception and Quiet Room.
- There is enough accommodation in the Tantallon building for everyone in single and twin rooms with a small number of rooms specifically for wheelchair users, ground floor rooms are also suitable. This building is across the courtyard but there are a few disabled rooms in Culzean in the main building, if required
- Each room is ensuite (N.B. Some wardrobes may not be accessible due to student use)
- Towels & Linen are provided
- Kettles are available in the utility areas beside the bedrooms, you may wish to bring your own mug to use & preferred brand of tea & coffee
- All rubbish is recycled so plastic bags will be provided in the bedrooms
- There is a lift to first and second floors in the main House and in Tantallon
- Ample parking is available on Parade Square
